A Message from the Judge

This annual report of the activities of the Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County for calendar year 2014 is my first as presiding Judge. It marks the transition from the administration of Judge Curtis S. Person, who led the Court the first eight months of 2014. In taking the oath of office September 1, 2014, I reflected on the legacies of Judge Person and his predecessor, Judge Kenneth A. Turner, both of whom I served in several capacities in my 23 years at the Court. This annual report cannot adequately measure my distinguished predecessors' leadership and service but it can provide an overview of the tireless work of hundreds of dedicated employees and volunteers on behalf of children and families in Shelby County.

For more than a century, Juvenile Court has engaged in a quest for excellence by constantly searching for ways to improve services while building upon research and evidence-based practices. Many juvenile justice initiatives undertaken at this Court have been adopted as models for other programs in Tennessee and across the nation. The process of developing new initiatives continues. Several significant events occurred in 2014.

After Memphis and Shelby County's designation by the Annie E. Casey Foundation as a Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative (JDAI) Site in 2012, Juvenile Court led the efforts to create the organizational structure and develop a work plan. In 2013, the Court helped add subcommittees for specific tasks in the areas of data collection and analysis, reduction of disproportionate minority contact, review and validation of the detention assessment tool (DAT), and alternatives to detention. In 2014, our JDAI representatives visited Santa Cruz, CA to learn more about the operation of an Evening Reporting Center (ERC). The visit sparked planning for a pilot ERC with a Court agency partner to be implemented in 2015. JDAI is now in effect in more than 200 counties across 39 states and the District of Columbia. The Court's efforts have resulted in improved collaboration among community agencies, significant reductions in the number of juveniles detained for less serious offenses, and fewer transports by law enforcement officers.

In 2014 Juvenile Court continued to pursue reform efforts in accordance with the Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) between the U. S. Department of Justice and the Court and Shelby County Government. In recognition of the many reforms our Court implemented

The Honorable Dan H. Michael

Judge

Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County

before 2012, DOJ determined the Court should continue to build on its previous reforms and become the model for juvenile justice in the United States. The MOA will guide the Court toward full compliance with the reform measures agreed upon by the parties on December 17, 2012, subject to available funding from Shelby County Government. DOJ attorneys, monitors and consultants completed compliance visits in April and October, documented by reports measuring the Court's progress. All DOJ compliance reports are posted on the Court's website.

Youth Court, the statutorily based program begun in February 2011, with student teams from four Memphis City Schools, expanded to 15 high schools in 2014. Youth Court is a juvenile delinquency diversion and peer restorative justice program dedicated to rehabilitation of first-time nonviolent offenders. The program holds the youthful offenders accountable for their behaviors and educates them about citizenship. Local attorneys and law students from the University of Memphis guide the student team members in their roles as prosecutors, defense counsel, jurors and court officers. Eighty-two hearings were conducted in 2014, involving 248 students and 57 volunteer attorneys. Five first time offenders began participating as high school team members soon after their dispositions were completed and all their charges were dismissed. The program has the lowest recidivism of any Court program with a current rate of eight percent.

Hope Academy began its fourth full academic year in August 2014. In February 2010, the Court partnered with Memphis City Schools to establish a structured education program for detained youth, known as “Hope Academy.” The program provides six hours of classroom instruction in English, math, science, social studies and guidance/life skills. It includes a computer lab and the necessary software to connect detained youth to their regular classroom curriculum. A recreational director plans and implements a program to provide an hour of physical education and training each day. This program has proven to be of great benefit to the youth it serves. It has significantly reduced recidivism among those who have attended Hope Academy. An education mentor project, labeled Hope Academy Mentor Program (HAMP) began in 2012, with the objective of following up on a youth’s academic progress once he or she returns to a regular school environment.

The School Based Probation Liaison project (SBPL), a new partnership with Shelby County Schools, began its second year of operation in 2014. The project is designed to maintain closer contact with juveniles under supervised probation upon their return to their assigned schools. Key SCS faculty and administrators are authorized to monitor the students’ academic progress and school attendance as conditions of probation. The SCS staffers are also encouraged to serve as mentors and advocates for the probationers. The objective is to help prevent their return to the juvenile justice system.

The Court maintained two special grant agreements with the Tennessee Department of Human Services that provide funding for four child support magistrates, six principal court clerks and two management/supervisory personnel. The grants also support the Court’s Office of the Non-Custodial Parent Advocate and provide for design and development of new computer software programs. The technological assistance reinforced the Court’s initiative to provide for electronic filing of orders and petitions on child support cases. E-filing of IV-D child support petitions became operational October 5, 2011.

The Office of Non-custodial Parent Advocate, established in 2006, continued to function effectively in 2014. Its two attorney staff assists daily pro se or self-represented litigants by explaining Court procedures and by providing them with general guidance through the different offices involved with their cases. The Office of Non-custodial Advocate has served more than 30,000 people and has been studied as a model for establishing such programs in other Tennessee counties.

On December 22nd, the Court’s 104th anniversary celebration featured an all-day Continuing Legal Education program conducted by Court staff.

The Court continued its participation in School Pathways to Justice, a project of the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges (NCJFCJ). The Court is one of only 16 juvenile courts in the nation selected by NCJFCJ. The project is strongly supported by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) and several foundation partners. The Court also began its work as an Implementation Site for the NCJFCJ dependency project. One of eight juvenile courts selected from across the nation, the Court will serve as a laboratory for improving processes in dependency and neglect cases.

Before my eight year term as Presiding Judge officially began September 1, 2014, I explored ways to collaborate more effectively with local agencies, community partners, schools and law enforcement. One of my first initiatives was to ask Shelby County Sheriff Bill Oldham to consider taking over operations of the Court’s detention center. The Sheriff began a comprehensive three month assessment. By year end the Sheriff had decided to move forward on a plan to transition detention operations from the Court to his department, provided adequate funding could be made available by the County Commission. If successfully implemented, the Sheriff’s plan will result in a more secure environment for juvenile detainees and will ensure a much higher level of training for staff.

It is an honor to have the support and encouragement of so many outstanding individuals who come to work each day, intent upon helping children and youth discover better paths for their life journeys. I am inspired by their examples of service. I am also grateful for the countless hours of voluntary services rendered by the Auxiliary Probation Service, the Foster Care Review Boards, CASA, the Chaplaincy Corps, the Youth Court attorneys and law students, and so many others. The Court could not operate efficiently and effectively without the generous contributions of time, talent and energy by its volunteers. Their loyal support enables the Court to fulfill its mission.

Steven Anderson, Chief Bailiff

Adreine Williams, Court Cost

Calvin Walk, Process/ Parent Location

LaDonna Graham, Special Projects Coordinator

The goal of the Clerk's Office in 2014 was to continue to function efficiently and effectively, to respond to the needs of the families of our community, and to generate revenue through collection of court ordered fines and fees, grant contracts and state reimbursement to offset the cost of court operation.

In 2009, the Child Support Services Division at Juvenile Court was not awarded the state contract for the first time since 1976. The state contract for child support services for Shelby County went to Maximus, a private agency, beginning in July 2009. Unlike in previous years, the IV-D Child Support Agency is no longer located in the Juvenile Court building but at an off-site location. This transition in child support services has impacted the Clerk's Office operation in all areas from processing petitions filed for establishment, enforcement, genetic testing and all other related child support issues as well as "Clerk Services" reimbursement from the State. The Clerk's Office staff continues to work closely with Maximus to help meet and process the workload efficiently through this transition period.

In 2014, the Clerk's Office secured a grant contract with the State of Tennessee for the ninth consecutive year in the amount of $940,393.94 for "service of process" in all Title IV-D child support cases. This grant shifts 66% of the total cost of funding fifteen full time positions to the State leaving the Clerk's Office budget responsible for the remaining 34%.

The Juvenile Court Clerk's Office and staff will continue to serve the public to the best of our ability with proven effective leadership, accountability and integrity.

Joy Touliatos
Clerk of Court

Collections Department

Kathy Adams, Manager

The Collections Department within the Court Clerk's Office is responsible for the collection and processing of all monies assessed and paid through the Juvenile Court system. This includes child support payments by mail or in person, employer payrolls, all cash window activity generated from courtroom dockets, walk-ins, as well as fees and fines assessed non-judicially such as conferences, court costs, and traffic ticket violations. This area of the Clerk's Office also handles the writing of all appearance bonds, juvenile or adult, cash or surety, and collection and disbursement of court-ordered restitution payments.

Beginning in October 1999, most child support collections were re-directed to the "centralized collections" process through the State of Tennessee in Nashville. However, the Court Clerk's Office still processed $4,985,250.79 in child support transactions in 2014. The Clerk's Office also received in 2014 a total of $777,859.99 in state reimbursements for "Clerk Services" associated with these collections/transactions and filings under the IV-D Child Support Program

Accounting Department

Bill Pope, Manager

Brent Weirich, Accountant

This department is responsible for accounting and internally auditing the bookkeeping procedures of the Collections Department on a daily and monthly basis. At the end of each month, collected revenue that has been deposited daily through the Shelby County Trustee's Office is remitted to the County Department of Finance to be deposited into the County general fund, and all account balances are reconciled to their respective bank statements. At the end of each fiscal year, reports are prepared for the state-mandated external audit by an independent accounting/auditing firm. In addition to these routine banking responsibilities, the Accounting Department along with the Clerk has the fiduciary responsibility of managing approximately 718 victims' compensation accounts. These funds, issued by the state Treasury Department under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Program, are put into interest-bearing trust accounts for minors, and currently total almost $4,584,531.45.

Minute Department

Karen Brooks, Manager

Katha Robards, Supervisor

The minutes of the Juvenile Court constitute the official record of the Court. There are eleven Minute Clerks, who are responsible for recording all the Court's proceedings and decisions and for preparing Court orders and entering those orders in the minutes.

Minute Clerks attend sixty-five scheduled dockets weekly, in addition to special dockets, special hearings, and Foster Care Review Board. In 2014, there were approximately 91,432 pages of minutes were compiled representing over 44,935 individual Juvenile Court orders.

Cost Clerk's Department

Adreine Williams, Supervisor

As provided by law, court costs are assessed in all cases before the Court, and the Cost Clerk's Department is responsible for maintenance and collection of these fees. In 2014, collections totaled $334,934.68.

Central Records Department

Julia Wiseman, Deputy Administrator

Freda Lewis, Supervisor

Central Records Department personnel are responsible for building, housing and securely maintaining all Juvenile Court records. Currently there are over 1,353,125 records housed in the Clerk's Office. In 2014, there were 8,679 legal records created and 2,200 social records created. This department also serves to provide assistance and information to the general public, court personnel, social service agencies, attorneys and law enforcement agencies by providing accurate and appropriate information required in the processing and handling of cases through the Juvenile Court.

Bailiff's Department

Steven Anderson, Chief Bailiff

William Kendrick, Supervisor

Juvenile Court Bailiffs are responsible for security within the sight and sound of the Court while maintaining proper courtroom decorum. They are also responsible for the safe and secure transport of juveniles and adults to various correctional and detention facilities. Bailiffs work with the certification of Special Deputy status issued by the Sheriff of Shelby County and respond to all emergencies that arise in the vicinity of Juvenile Court.

Process/Parent Location

Calvin Walk, Manager

Lori Reece, Supervisor Parent Location

The process Department is responsible for the service of all legal documents that require appearance in court. In 2014, 14,655 summons, subpoenas, and scire facias were successfully served. Except in rare and extreme cases, all documents are received ready for service by the Process Department within a minimum of five days prior to a scheduled court date.

The Parent Location Department is responsible for preparing jail arrest papers for the court dockets. In addition, direct access to the Sheriff's Department computer system known as the Jail Management Systems (JMS) allows staff to enter and update current status of all juvenile and adult warrants in a timely manner.

Staff in Parent Location funded under the IV-D State Contract is responsible for all tasks specific to the grant. First and foremost, this staff must enter time-sensitive data daily into the Tennessee Child Support Enforcement System relative to the status of service on all IV-D Child Support Cases.

Juvenile Court Legal Department

Larry Scroggs, Chief Administrative Officer and Chief Counsel

The Office of the Chief Counsel provides legal counsel to the Court staff in pursuit of their administrative responsibilities. In addition, the Chief Counsel serves as legal liaison between Juvenile Court and the Office of the Shelby County Attorney. The Chief Counsel also serves as legal liaison between Juvenile Court and the state and federal government and legislative liaison between the Court and the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee. His office ensures compliance with and implementation of extensive federal and state regulations and legislation relating to the operation of Juvenile Court.

Advocate for Noncustodial Parents

Thomas W. Coupé, Supervising Attorney

Marilyn Jones, Attorney

Laurie Neale, Attorney

Catherine Lewis, Administrative Technician

People representing themselves in court often need help. Judge Curtis S. Person recognized this need, and in 2006, the Office of the Advocate for Noncustodial Parents was established. Attorneys provide assistance to pro se litigants in understanding their rights and responsibilities under the law, and guidance in the use of the proper legal forms. Help is available with issues such as child support, paternity, custody, and visitation. This innovative office reflects Judge Person's commitment that Juvenile Court be open and accessible to the large number of persons who are self-represented. With 2,617 contacts in 2014, this office provided services to numerous parents and family members.

Judge's Action Center

Thomas W. Coupé, Supervising Attorney

Yolanda Joshua, Coordinator

Judge Curtis S. Person created the Judge's Action Center in 2008 to serve as a liaison between Juvenile Court and the public to help answer questions or address concerns for people who have issues involving Juvenile Court of child welfare matters.

The Action Center provides helpful and timely answers for those who have questions concerning Juvenile Court, assists people with problems that have previously gone unresolved and receives suggestions on how to improve court operations.

Office of the Guardian ad litem

Belynda Dwyer, Supervising Attorney

Sarah Kyle Gilmer, Coordinator

The Office of the Guardian ad litem is charged with assuring competent legal representation for children and parents in requires Juvenile Court cases in compliance with Federal and State laws and Juvenile Court policy and procedure. The Office is also charges with serving as a liaison between Guardians ad litem, appointed counsel, private attorneys, the Tennessee Department of Children's Services, departments within Juvenile Court and other stake holders to promote the best practices and policies in children's cases.

The Attorney Coordinator facilitates the appointment of a Guardian ad litem, an appropriately trained and licensed lawyer, to advocate for the best interests of a child in any proceeding in which:

- The child has no parent, guardian, or other custodian appearing on the child's behalf
- The child's interest may conflict with those of the parent, guardian, or custodian
- The child is alleged to be abused
- The allegation of harm falls within the mandatory child abuse reporting laws; or
- The proceeding is a contested termination of parental rights case

The Attorney Coordinator also facilitates the appointment of counsel for qualified indigent parents in dependency and neglect and termination of parental rights cases and qualified parents where application of the Federal Civil Servicemember Act is needed.

In 2014, approximately 1,190 Guardians ad litem and 909 parents' counsel were appointed in children's cases.

Juvenile Defender Panel

Jane Sturdivant, Coordinator

The Juvenile Defender's office is managed by a Coordinator who supervises a staff of 36 private attorneys, known as the Juvenile Defender Panel, and one investigator. Of those attorneys, 28 handle detention and delinquency dockets. Some of those attorneys, along with the remaining panel members, also handle the child support contempt dockets and education neglect/truancy dockets. All attorneys are duly licensed and in good standing to practice, and have juvenile and criminal defense experience ranging from 3 to 38 years. The Panel defends juveniles charged with delinquent offenses ranging from disorderly conduct to first degree murder.

The Defender's Office is appointed to provide legal defense to all indigent juveniles within 24 hours of their detention in delinquency matters (offenses classified as felony and misdemeanor). In felony classified cases, (for example, aggravated robbery, robbery, aggravated kidnapping, kidnapping, aggravated assault, aggravated rape, rape, sexual battery, murder first, murder second, and voluntary manslaughter), panel attorneys work diligently towards a disposition that will avoid transfer to adult court and retain the child in the juvenile system for rehabilitation. All cases classified as misdemeanor, truancy and unruly are heard in Juvenile Court and rehabilitative services are provided within the Juvenile System.

The Defender's Office also works with the families, support organizations, schools and mental health facilities to protect the juvenile's interest and litigate for placement in the appropriate program for rehabilitation.

Defenders are also appointed to represent indigent adults (both incarcerated and walk-ins) charged with contempt of court for either failure to pay child support or failure to comply with parental visitation orders.

From January 1, 2014 to December 31, 2014, the Juvenile Defender Panel represented 2,055 cases assigned on the delinquency docket. There were 10,119 adult defendants cited for failure to comply with orders of child support in contempt proceedings and of those, 4,444 (43.92%) utilized services of the Defender Panel.

Office of Clinical Services

Candice Hamlin, Admin Tech

The Office of Clinical Services is responsible for conducting mental health and cognitive screenings, comprehensive psychological and specialized evaluations, and risk/needs assessments of Court-involved youth; preparing memoranda and psychological reports to assist with post-adjudicatory disposition of Court-involved youth; initiating referrals to the Tennessee Department of Children's Services (DCS) for alleged child maltreatment; preparation of transfer packets for youth waived to the criminal justice system; and providing other services as requested by the Court. In 2014, there were 198 referrals to the Office of Clinical Services.

The Office of Clinical Services maintains a formal partnership with the University of Tennessee Health Science Center (UTHSC) through the University of Tennessee Professional Psychology Internship Consortium (UTPPIC). The training opportunities provided to future psychologists are consistently rated among the best of the clinical rotations available to pre-doctoral interns.

The primary objective of the Office of Clinical Services is to assist the Court with post-adjudicatory disposition based on identified mental health needs, consistent with the philosophy of the juvenile justice system.

Court Services Division

Pamela J. Skelton, Director

The Court Services Division includes the Children's Bureau, the Youth Services Bureau, the Detention Services Bureau and the Evaluation and Referral Bureau. It provides pre-adjudicatory and post-adjudicatory services to children brought to the attention of Juvenile Court. The Court Services Division is mandated by Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 37 to meet the following statutory requirements:

- Provide for the care, protections, and wholesome development of children coming within its provisions;
- Remove from children committing delinquent acts the taint of criminality and the consequences of criminal behavior and substitute a program of treatment, training and rehabilitation;
- Avoid whenever possible separating children from their parents only when necessary to protect the child's welfare or in the interest of public safety;
- Assure that all parties are assured a fair hearing and their constitutional and other legal rights are recognized and enforced;
- Deinstitutionalize children who have not been found to be delinquent.

In 2014, 12,156 children were brought to the attention of Juvenile Court on matters relating to delinquency, unruly behavior, and dependency and neglect. This is a decrease of 19.5% from the 15,103 cases that came to the Court in 2013. An additional 2,706 children were issued traffic citations representing a 9.2% decrease over the 2,977 cases the previous year. While the number of cases has dropped significantly over the past seven years, the Court continues to see more children diagnosed with serious mental health and physical issues that contribute to the difficulty of finding appropriate treatment and placement resources. The Evaluation and Referral Bureau is responsible for finding the appropriate mental health services ordered by the Court. They are also responsible for monitoring the progress of the treatment to ensure compliance of court orders.

The Detention Services Bureau admitted 3,023 children transported to the Detention Center in 2014. Of that number, 1,719 were released without being "officially admitted" to the Detention Center. Implementation of the Detention Assessment Tool (DAT) has assisted the Court in detaining only those children who may be in danger of harming themselves or a danger to the community. Over the past five years, the Court has worked with the Memphis City Schools in the School House Adjustment Program Enterprise (SHAPE) to help reduce the number of children taken into custody from 22 targeted city schools. The Juvenile Court has partnered with the Memphis Police Department and the Shelby County Sheriff's Department to implement the Juvenile Summons Program. This program requests that law enforcement officers issue juvenile summonses in lieu of physical arrest on seven designated offenses. Since the implementation of the Juvenile Summons Program, summonses represent 68% of children referred to Juvenile Court while physical arrests have dropped to 31%.

In September of 2013, the Court entered into a Memorandum of Agreement with the Shelby County Sheriff's Office to implement the Law Enforcement Assessment Phone-in Pilot Program (LEAP) to help reduce the number of children who are physically arrested and brought to Juvenile Court. Sheriff's deputies may call the Central Detention Admissions Office to seek assistance on the necessity of physical arrests. Juvenile Summonses may be issued in lieu of arrest. Officers may also seek advice on other options that would allow children to remain in their home or community placement pending review of their complaint. The LEAP program was expanded to include the Memphis Police Department in 2014, and the hope is to include other local law enforcement jurisdictions during 2015.

These efforts to reduce the number of physical arrests have resulted in the Juvenile Court being designated by the Annie E. Casey Foundation as a Juvenile Detention Alternatives (JDAI) site. While the Detention Services Bureau works to reduce the number of children detained, public safety and the safety of the children are always paramount. Every effort is made to place children in a safe and secure environment pending the outcome of their case.

The Children's Bureau was responsible for resolving 14,862 children's cases presented to the Court in 2014. This represents a 17.8% decrease from the previous year's 18,080 children's cases. The Children's Bureau consists of the Corrective Services Department which handles cases of children charged with delinquent and traffic charges.

The Protective Services Department handles children who are alleged to be dependent and neglected as well as custody and visitation matters. The probation counselors in the Children's Bureau work closely with the Tennessee Department of Children's Services, the Tennessee Department of Human Services and many local private agencies to ensure that the safest and least restrictive placements are made for all children. Counselors assigned to the Non-Custodial Diversion Section work with unruly children who have not yet been officially referred to the Court. Referrals to local child-serving agencies assist parents with counseling and behavior management programs.

The Youth Services Bureau (YSB) provides a post adjudicatory continuum of graduated sanction for children and allows them to remain in their homes under close supervision. During 2014, the Youth Services Bureau received 323 referrals, placing children under supervision in several different programs: Case Management, Intensive Case Management, Drug Offenders Control System (DOCS), and electronic monitoring to include voice recognition, radio frequency and Global Positioning Satellites (GPS). Case Management and Intensive Case Management are used for children needing a higher level of supervision. Case managers visit the children in their homes and schools to ensure that they are in compliance with the orders of the Court. The DOCS Program is designed to monitor children who have committed drug offenses or who are in need of drug education. Violators of these monitoring strategies are brought to the attention of the Juvenile Court Magistrates and may be subject to further sanctions for violations of the conditions of placement.

The Evaluation and Referral Bureau (E & R) works in collaboration with other bureaus at the Court to meet the ever growing mental health needs of children coming to the attention of Juvenile Court. In 2014, E & R served 754 families and made over 900 referrals to community service providers. Once the needs are identified, E & R moves quickly to find resources appropriate for the child and the family. Many local child serving agencies provide an array of treatment services from inpatient care to outpatient group and individual therapeutic counseling. Compliance and progress are monitored by the probation counselors assigned to E & R. Non-compliance with court ordered treatment may result in children and families being brought back to court.

The Evaluation and Referral Bureau

Davis Schuler, Administrator
Nancy Roll, Manager

Established in 1989, the Evaluation and Referral Section (E&R) is mandated with seeking treatment and rehabilitation of court involved youth. E&R recognizes that many children who present to the court do so for a number of reasons, including having unidentified and/or untreated mental health, substance abuse or other special needs. These unmet needs gravely affect decision making and behavior. The E&R Bureau works closely with other areas of the Court to identify the needs specific to each family. During 2014, the Court implemented the Youth Assessment and Screening Instrument. This assessment tool has provided E&R with the opportunity to identify youth with high risk factors. Once these needs and risk factors are identified, referrals are made to community service providers and compliance and progress in treatment are closely monitored. Ultimately, the goal of the Evaluation and Referral Bureau is to promote healthy development and resilience, reduce recidivism and assist youth in developing into productive members of society. Because each child is unique, and because multiple individuals, life circumstances and experiences effect development, the Evaluation and Referral Bureau takes a holistic, strength-based approach when working with Court-involved youth and families.

During the 2014 calendar year, 754 youth were referred to E&R for services.

Children's Bureau

Barry L. Mitchell,

Chief Probation Officer

Faye Howard,

Deputy Chief Probation Officer

The Children's Bureau is responsible for handling a diverse caseload. The Corrective Services Department handles all delinquent matters while the Protective Services Department handles cases alleging dependency and neglect as well as visitation and custody issues. In 2014, the Children's Bureau handled 12,156 cases.

To handle such a diverse caseload, the Children's Bureau maintains a close working relationship with other departments of the Court. Additionally, the Children's Bureau works with law enforcement and child placement agencies outside the Court.

The Community Service Coordinator is responsible for developing resources for juveniles to perform volunteer work as ordered by the Court. This service allows juveniles to take responsibility for their actions and make restitution for their delinquent acts.

The Non-Custodial Diversion Section handles traffic, truancy, and unruly cases. Staff handles walk-in clients that are experiencing difficulty with the behavior of unruly children. Appropriate cases are referred to local agencies for counseling. During 2014, this section handled 268 unruly cases.

The Corrective Services Department, consisting of the Probation Section and the Non-Custodial Diversion Section, handles a wide range of offenses committed by juveniles. Dispositions in these cases vary from forfeitures and community service to probation, placement in the Youth Services Bureau, commitment to the Tennessee Department of Children's Services or transfer to Criminal Court.

The Probation Section is responsible for the majority of pre-hearing investigations and casework in delinquency cases including juvenile summonses issued by law enforcement agencies throughout Shelby County. The Non-Custodial Diversion Section provides assistance with complaints of unruly children, processes truancy complaints, handles thousands of traffic violators each year, and coordinates the Community Service Program and Mediation and Restitution/Reconciliation Services (MARRS).

The Community Service Program is a symbolic restitution program for children who have committed various types of offenses. Delinquent youths are placed with public and private non-profit agencies that provide work assignments and supervision. There were 258 referrals to the program in 2014.

Protective Services Department

Robert Michael Blancett, Manager

Erica N. Glynn, Supervisor

Demetria Maxwell-Hughlett, Supervisor

The Protective Services Department consists of Juvenile Services Counselors that are responsible for handling all matters involving child abuse, neglect, custody and visitation. Protective Services provides assistance to individuals, agencies, and attorneys in preparing and filing petitions containing allegations of abuse and neglect against children. In 2014, this department processed a total of 3,554 complaints. There were approximately 2,660 dependency and neglect complaints filed and 894 custody and visitation complaints filed. Counselors held conferences with approximately 4,988 individual clients, as well as provided assistance to approximately 7,449 children.

The Protective Services Counselors ensure all cases are set on the docket to be heard by a magistrate or the Judge. Counselors are also responsible for making referrals to the Tennessee Department of Children's Services on each case they receive in order to make sure the allegations on the petitions are properly investigated, and the results can be presented to the Judge or Magistrate. Counselors make referrals to the Office of Guardian ad litem on behalf of the child to obtain a court appointed attorney.

The Protective Services Department assists clients with obtaining protective custody orders to remove children from environments or persons that are found to be an eminent harm or danger to the child. Obtaining emergency medical treatment orders for doctors to provide medical treatment to children in life threatening situations is also a very important responsibility of this department. Counselors assist noncustodial parents in filing petitions for visitation of children born out of wedlock.

The staff works closely with other organizations such as the Child Protection Investigation Team (CPIT) and the Department of Justice's Defending Childhood Initiative. CPIT is a coordinated interagency multidisciplinary response to prevent, detect, investigate, treat and prosecute child sexual abuse and severe physical abuse. The DOJ initiative addresses children's exposure to violence. This department plays an important role in the Shelby County Interagency Domestic Violence Fatality Review Team. This team assists local agencies in identifying and reviewing domestic abuse deaths, facilitating communication among the various agencies involved in domestic abuse cases and determining whether or not children were witnesses to or exposed to these fatalities. This department is now an Endorsing Partner of the Shelby County Early Success Coalition. The mission of the Early Success Coalition is to promote and expand effective outreach, education and direct services for families with young children.

The Protective Services Department at Juvenile Court is now a partner with the Department of Children's Services In Home Tennessee Domestic Violence work group. In Home Tennessee is aimed at enhancing the services provided to families involved with the child welfare system across the state.

In July of 2014, the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges chose the Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County as one of only eight sites in the country as a National Implementation Site for Dependency and Neglect. This is a nationwide child welfare program to "implement best practices and to improve court systems for the benefit of the children and families in their respective jurisdictions." The Protective Services Department is pleased to be working with NCJFCJ in developing and improving our court systems in order to better serve the children and families of Memphis and Shelby County.

Youth Services Bureau

C. Wain Rubenstein, Administrator

Frances Gonzales, Deputy Administrator

The mission of the Youth Services Bureau is to develop, manage and supervise community-based programs for youth in Shelby County who require supervision by the Court. Using a sensible, not sanctimonious approach, the goals of the Youth Services Bureau are to correct, re-educate, redirect, and habilitate delinquent youth who come before the Court.

When a youth is taken into custody for a delinquent offense in Shelby County, they must answer to those charges in the Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County. There are various ways these cases are handled including a Court hearing. Prior to going to Court, the Youth Services Bureau reviews the case to see if it is appropriate for YSB. A number of factors are taken into consideration when approving a case for YSB placement. Some of the factors include prior history, community risk, and availability of the home. All children placed in YSB reside in the home of their parent or guardian, and are monitored by YSB case managers or intensive case managers.

YSB uses a strength based individual placement plan and assessment chart, and Community Risk Assessment. This is developed through an interview with the parent/guardian and child, and a review of the youth's Juvenile Court file. After this information is assembled a "staffing" is held involving the bureau administrators, supervisor, and the Assessment Services Coordinator. Based on the assessment, a consensus is reached as to which program best will benefit the youth and family. The youth is placed on Case Management, Drug Offenders Control System (DOCS), or Intensive Case Management (ICM). Electronic monitoring such as voice verification, ankle bracelets with Radio Frequency (RF), or GPS tracking are placed on children who require more supervision.

Youth who do not require an intense level of supervision are placed on Case Management. These youth are monitored using state of the art electronic technology such as those mentioned above. The various levels of monitoring are used as graduated sanctions for those youth in need of closer supervision. Additionally, these youth are required to be at home, except when they go to school, attend church, have a doctor's appointment, or other special occasions approved by their case manager or intensive case manager.

Drug Offenders Control System (DOCS) is designed to monitor youth that have committed drug offenses or are in need of drug education treatment. Youth follow the same rules as Case Management and additionally must attend a community-based alcohol and drug program. The children are randomly tested for drugs by urinalysis. After the youth have successfully completed their home confinement, drug education class and have clean drug screens they are discharged from the program.

Youth who require closer supervision are assigned to Intensive Case Management. Their cases are supervised by an intensive case manager, who makes home visits, school visits, job visits, and helps secure community resources that may assist the youth from having further contact with the Court. The intensive case manager may also use some form of electronic monitoring. Each intensive case manager supervises a caseload of approximately 12 to 15 cases, which affords them the ability to interact with each client on a much closer basis

As previously mentioned, the various forms of electronic monitoring are used as a graduated sanction. A youth may start with voice verification, but later be moved to a higher level of electronic monitoring, such as RF or GPS if this level of supervision proves to be ineffective.

Youth placed on voice verification are required to have a template of their voice made by reciting various words and phrases to the monitoring station. Once the youth returns home they will be called on a random basis several times per day, and must repeat various words and phrases as prompted by the monitoring station. If there is no answer, or the voice does not match the template, the monitoring station will report the violation to the case manager, who will take the appropriate action in dealing with the violation. When a youth is placed on RF a signal is sent to the monitoring station when the youth leaves home, and likewise upon their return. If the absence is unauthorized, once again the monitoring station will notify the case manager via the internet. GPS monitoring is the highest level of electronic monitoring. These youth may be traced using the internet, which will show their movement on a map, and each location the youth visits. By using GPS both inclusion and exclusion zones may be established. This allows the case manager to determine if a youth has left a location they are required to be at, such as school, or they are in a location that is off limits to them.

The Youth Service Bureau continues its collaborative efforts with community-based initiatives such as Juvenile Intervention and Faith Based Follow-up (JIFF) program, which provides counseling and mentoring services to youth in selected zip codes. YSB marked its eleventh year of involvement with JIFF. Youth assigned to YSB requiring mental health and substance abuse services are referred to the Court's Evaluation and Referral Bureau. YSB continues to partner with Shelby County Schools in the School Based Probation Liaison Initiative. Teachers in seventeen schools will act as a liaison for youth placed on court-supervised probation or in YSB. They will address educational and behavioral problems a youth may be having in school and work with the assigned auxiliary probation officer or YSB case manager in addressing these issues.

Children consigned to the YSB in 2014 compared to the previous nine years:

Office of Outcome Evaluation and Performance Improvement

Debra Monroe-Lax, Research Specialist, MPA

In 2005, the Office of Outcome Evaluation and Performance Improvement (OEPI) was established to augment the existing statistical data collection efforts of Juvenile Court. This office will gather and examine data relevant to the many duties and activities of the Court Services Division in order to assist in the continuous examination of the systemic performance and to measure the effectiveness of:

- Intervention initiatives of delinquent youth whose Court case proceedings result in adjudication or are handled non-judicially
- The level of monitoring and supervision according to dispositions and referral sources
- The impact of interventions based on youth development, accountability, and/or public safety

Ongoing trend analysis will assist the Court in planning for the timely and appropriate allocation of resources to manage the changing needs of an unpredictable caseload. Informative internal evaluations serve to provide objective and quantifiable data to promote, support, and guide development and sustainability of effective programs offered by the Detention Services Bureau, Children's Bureau, Youth Service Bureau, and the Evaluation and Referral Bureau, and Volunteer Services Bureau.

As the Memorandum Agreement with the U.S. Department of Justice (December 2012) to address remedial measures with the Court, the OEPI is assisting with addressing equal protection issues relative to Disproportionate Minority Contact.

DETENTION SERVICES BUREAU

Gary Cummings, Administrator
Mamie Jones, Deputy Administrator
Willie Walton, Manager
Lawrence Weichel, Manager

Detention Services Bureau (DSB) is designed for those youth who are a threat to themselves, public safety, or who are a flight risk. DSB is a 135 bed single occupancy secure detention center. Children are usually held for a short period of time awaiting court hearings or further placement decisions. While housed at the detention center, supervised youth are provided education, recreation, health assessments, counseling, and other intervention services. Juvenile Court, in collaboration with Shelby County Schools, provides an education program for all detained youth in the detention center. Highly trained staff provide for the care, safety, welfare, and security of every child in the custody of the Court. It is the expectation that DSB ensures that every child is protected from harm and self-incrimination by ensuring due process. In 2014, DSB admitted 1,304 youths with 1,719 youths being released to a parent or guardian.

The detention center is comprised of three units: Boy's Detention, Girl's Detention, and Central Detention Control. DSB is a twenty-four (24) hour, seven (7) day a week, 365 days a year operation. DSB necessitates a staffing ratio of 1 to 8 during waking hours and 1 to 12 during sleeping hours.

The detention center has partnered with the Annie E. Casey Foundation to work toward developing alternatives to detention, thus reducing the number of youth from being introduced to the Juvenile Justice System. All youth admitted to the detention center are informed of their rights and their charge(s). Youth who are admitted to the detention center are appointed counsel by request.

In an effort to safeguard every youth in the detention center, Correct Care Solutions (CCS) provides twenty-four (24) hour medical and mental health services to all youth in the custody of Juvenile Court.

The Detention Services Bureau will continue to strive to work towards improving its efforts in the reduction of youths being introduced into the Juvenile Justice System, by adhering to national and federal best practices used throughout the United States.

HOPE ACADEMY

Michael Smith, Program Administrator

Hope Academy is a partnership with Shelby County Juvenile Court and Shelby County Schools that provides a quality education to address the academic and social needs of students detained at Juvenile Court. All educational programs are staffed by certified Shelby County School staff in the following subjects: Science, Social Studies, Math, and English. The outcome of HOPE Academy will focus on academic success; drop-out prevention, recovery of out-of-school youth, increased graduation rates, educational, emotional and counseling services, and diversion from the criminal justice system.

The Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County has waived jurisdiction in all cases in which a child sixteen (16) years of age or over is charged by officers of the Shelby County municipalities of, Collierville, Germantown, and Millington with violation of a state traffic law or a municipal traffic ordinance, except when a child is taken into custody in connection with the offense, in which case the child must be brought to the Juvenile Court Detention Center. Juvenile Court expressly retains jurisdiction over all juveniles charged with traffic law violations by other law enforcement agencies within Shelby County.

During 2014, a total of 66,700 meals were prepared by the Food Services Department at an average food cost of $2.30.

Volunteer Services Bureau

Pamela Taylor, Administrator

Volunteer Services Bureau oversees and provides administrative support for Juvenile Court volunteer programs.

In 2014, approximately 800 individuals and organizations throughout Memphis and Shelby County donated over 70,000 hours of volunteer services and other contributions to assist children and families served by Juvenile Court.

Volunteer opportunities at Juvenile Court include:

- Auxiliary Probation Service (APS)
- Ambassador Program
- Foster Care Review Board (FCRB)
- Chaplaincy Program
- Commission on Missing and Exploited Children (COMEC)
- Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA)

The volunteer programs at Juvenile Court offer immeasurable service to the community. The dedication of volunteers helping children and families in our community is admirable.

As a part of community outreach, Volunteer Services Bureau visited several organizations and provided onsite virtual tours to approximately 1,050 participants during 2014. Virtual tours are provided to motivate youth to refrain from inappropriate behavior and to educate the public on Court programs and operation.

Auxiliary Probation Service (APS)

Tonya Watson, Coordinator

Created in 1964, the Auxiliary Probation Service (APS) was the first volunteer probation program of its kind in the nation. The Auxiliary Probation Service (APS) provides Court ordered services for the supervision, guidance, protection and welfare of youth in Memphis and Shelby County.

In 2014, the Auxiliary Probation Service (APS) continued to thrive. It remains the oldest and largest volunteer probation service of its kind. In 2014, approximately 236 active Auxiliary Probation Officers contributed over 39,578 hours supervising approximately 183 youth placed on supervised probation and the BYPASS Program. The BYPASS Program (Bringing Youth Positive Assistance through Special Services) is an alternative to probation for very young children with minor offenses. The BYPASS Program is very successful in keeping many youth from future delinquent behavior.

During 2014, members of the Auxiliary Probation Service (APS) were honored for their outstanding contributions and dedicated service. Division Chief Doris Holmes received the APS Leadership Award, Officer Robert Carter received the Jesse H. Bishop Award, Chief Martha Tipton received the Clara Hill Award, and Chief Bertha Cason received the Jeune Wood Volunteer of the Year Award.

Members celebrating anniversaries include:

- 40+ Years: District Chief Nathaniel Moody (45), Deputy Chief Tommy Smith (44)
- 30+ Years: Officer Melvin Shipp (39), Officer James Fisher (37), Officer Robert Carter (35), Officer Lillian Brisco (34)
- 20+ Years: Officer Aubrey Miller (28), Officer William Gilmore (25), Officer Anne Boswell (25), Officer Leroy Davis (25), Division Chief Tommy Evans (25), Officer Earline

Richmond (22), Chief Curt Evans (20), Officer Freddie Terrell (20).

Auxiliary Probation Service (APS) - Summons Division

Nataki Oyeleye-Dowdy, Coordinator

In 2010, Juvenile Court of Memphis & Shelby County spearheaded a movement for local law enforcement to issue a summons instead of arresting and detaining first and second time juvenile offenders who commit a misdemeanor offense. The seven (7) misdemeanor offenses include: criminal trespass, simple assault, simple possession of marijuana, theft of property ($500 or less), vandalism of property ($500 or less), gambling, and disorderly conduct.

The Auxiliary Probation Service (APS)-Summons Division was created in September 2010 to address the increased volume of summons received by Juvenile Court due to the success of the innovative summons policy.

Auxiliary Probation Officers (APOs) conduct the summons conferences at Juvenile Court. During the conference, the arrest ticket is reviewed and the youth is counseled to determine guilt and the reason for the crime. The Auxiliary Probation Officer documents any special observations to determine if the juvenile needs to be referred for specialized counseling (anger management, substance abuse, depression). If the juvenile admits guilt, signs a Court waiver and pays Court costs the juvenile will not have a Juvenile Court record.

In 2014, Volunteer Services Bureau received 517 summonses. Approximately 11 active Auxiliary Probation Officers contributed approximately 912 hours conducting 608 conferences.

Foster Care Services

Melissa Ungberg, Coordinator

Foster Care services is responsible for the oversight and review of post-adjudicatory children placed in the custody the Tennessee Department of Children's Services subsequent to findings of dependency, neglect, and unruly or delinquent behavior to ensure his or her safety, well-being, permanency, and rehabilitation. In 2014, 2,004 cases were docketed before Magistrates to approve permanency and transitional living plans. These children are also reviewed by the Foster Care Review Board, a quasi-judicial board comprised of volunteers. The Board members review quarterly reports, treatment plans, health, and educational records submitted by the Department and make recommendations to the Court.

These findings and recommendations pertain to:

- Necessity of continuing foster care, the appropriateness of the placement, and the projected date a child can exit by adoption or permanent placement.
- Level of participation of all involved parties in fulfilling their plan responsibilities
- Extent of progress in the elimination of issues that necessitated placement in care
- Necessity of filing a termination of parental rights action if timely progress has not been made towards reunification

In 2014, the Foster Care Review Board reviewed 2,232 cases resulting in approximately 3,346 volunteer hours. In addition to reviewing issues related to permanency and well-being, some specialized Boards review older youth to ensure the development of a Transitional Plan tailored to their needs and issues approaching adulthood. Specialized Foster Care Review Boards also review young adults ages 18-21 receiving Extension of Foster Care services to ensure they are meeting the independent living goals of his or her Transition plan to better equip them for adulthood and independence. There are approximately 150 active Foster Care Review Board members, and they are to be commended for their dedication to the children and families of our community.

COMEC

Len K. Edwards, Captain MPD (Ret), Executive Director

The Commission on Missing and Exploited Children (COMEC), a non-profit charitable agency, began its life at the Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County in 1984 after a series of highly publicized child disappearances. COMEC was designed as a collaborative effort to better address the prevention and intervention efforts in regard to missing children and children who had been exploited by adults.

COMEC is one of this area's premier resources for promoting the safety of children and the identification of those that would do harm to them. COMEC collaborates with the Memphis Police Department, the Shelby County Sheriff's Department and many other local, state and national Law Enforcement Agencies. COMEC also receives walk-in citizen traffic from the Juvenile Court who are seeking information regarding child custody issues, children with behavioral issues and many other issues that affect children.

In 2014, COMEC:

- Presented 127 Education and Prevention programs. (Runaway/Abduction/Trafficking/Internet Safety).
- Provided 33 free trainings on Child Safety Issues at schools, churches and other public gatherings.
- Participated in 46 Foster Care Reviews.
- Assisted 125 searching parents of Runaway/Abducted Children.
- Provided 472 free substance abuse screenings to children whose parent's suspected drug use.
- Provided 62 free counseling sessions to parents and children.
- Distributed thousands of pieces of free Child Safety Prevention literature.
- Distributed over 500 free Child Safety Fingerprint Identification Kits.

COMEC's mission is to provide meaningful and beneficial complementary services in an effort to support the work of the Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County, area Law Enforcement and parents/children who are in crisis.

Court Appointed Special Advocates

Daphni Ishak, Program Director

Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) became a program of The Exchange Club Family Center, Inc. July 1, 2013. CASA of Memphis and Shelby County began in 1986 under the late, Kenneth A. Turner, former judge of the Shelby County Juvenile Court as a result of a national movement by juvenile court judges to look for alternative ways to make sure the best interests of children would be consistently presented to the court. Our mission is to empower community volunteers to be advocates in court for abused and neglected children needing safe, permanent homes. In 2014, 86 active volunteers served 262 children and their families and contributed over 5,000 hours of service.

CASA volunteers receive in depth training to support their role as an advocate and are appointed by the Juvenile Court Judge to advocate for the best interest of an abused or neglected child in court. Once assigned to a child's case, volunteers are professionally supervised through the investigative process of gathering information from the child, their families, educators, social service professionals, health care providers, and any other persons having information regarding the child's case. Upon completion of the investigation, the findings are presented to the court outlining the volunteer's concerns, evaluations, and recommendations for the child's future.

CASA's role in court is powerful and significantly improves how justice is administered in dependency and neglect cases. Juvenile Court Magistrates use the report to respect the child's sense of time, avoid unnecessary continuances and make informed, timely decisions regarding the best interest of the child. For children, CASA volunteers are a lifeline in complex legal proceedings offering trust, advocacy, and a means to express their own opinions and hopes. One CASA child noted "To give a child a CASA volunteer is to give them a voice, and to give them a voice is to give them hope, and to give them hope is to give them the world."

Interagency Services

Sherry C. Schedler, Manager

The Office of Interagency Services develops and maintains youth services initiatives and projects shared by Juvenile Court and outside agencies. Interagency Services endeavors to expand services to children and families through partnerships, program development and grants.

In 2014, the Court participated in several grant initiatives. Examples include:

- The Child and Family Intervention Grant, awarded by the Tennessee Department of Children's Services, provided professional services for work with at-risk children and youth.

- The Juvenile Accountability Block Grant (JABG), a federal grant of the U.S. Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP), is administered by the Tennessee Commission on Children and Youth (TCCY). JABG's goal is to reduce delinquency by improving the juvenile justice system and increasing accountability of offenders. JABG funds provided computer software enhancements through June 30, 2014. All JABG funds end in 2015.
- The Justice Assistance Grant (JAG), funded by the U.S. Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), allows states and local governments to prevent and control crime and improve the criminal justice system. JAG funds provided continuation funding for Youth Court staff, computer software enhancements and professional service fees for GPS ankle bracelet monitoring as an alternative to detention.
- The Supreme Court of Tennessee, Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC), Access and Visitation Grant, provided continued funding for a part-time law student in the Office of the Advocate for Non-Custodial Parents to assist self-represented litigants.

In September 2013, a pilot was established to reduce the number of youth transported to Juvenile Court who do not pose a danger to themselves or the community. The Law Enforcement Assessment Phone-In Pilot Program (LEAP) allows law enforcement officers to call Detention about a youth in custody to determine if they may be issued a juvenile summons in lieu of transport. In 2014, the Memphis Police Department (MPD) joined the Shelby County Sheriff's Office (SCSO) to expand LEAP.

Juvenile Court is privileged to collaborate with the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges (NCJFCJ) on three important Initiatives:

- Juvenile Justice Model Courts Project of the Juvenile and Family Law Department of the NCJFCJ; Juvenile Court became one of only a dozen courts nationwide designated a Juvenile Justice Model Court in 2011. A Juvenile Justice Model Court is one that makes the commitment to follow key principles and recommendations to help improve delinquency case processing and outcomes for youth, families and communities while aspiring to excellence.

- Juvenile Court was selected as one of 16 courts in the nation to participate in the School Pathways to Juvenile Justice System Project in 2013. The NCJFCJ assists judicial leaders in reducing referrals to juvenile courts for school-based misbehaviors. The goal is to support student engagement and reduce students' school exclusion. The first Technical Assistance Site Visit occurred December 16-17, 2014. Judge Steven Teske of Clayton County, Georgia, Judge John Romero of Albuquerque, New Mexico and Cheri Ely are our NCJFCJ Facilitators.
- On July 7, 2014, The NCJFCJ selected Juvenile Court as one of eight cities in the country to launch the National Implementation Sites Project for child welfare issues including Dependency and Neglect and Foster Care.

Juvenile Court was chosen because of "the court's commitment and motivation to implement system reform efforts; the court's willingness to organize and form a strong collaborative team; and the court's desire to improve current court practice." Since 1992, the NCJFCJ has been collaborating with courts to improve outcomes for abused and neglected children and their families. The NCJFCJ staff works closely with lead judges and court teams to provide assessments, site visits, training and feedback. In addition, the NCJFCJ fosters important connections to the network of NCJFCJ Model Courts. On November 12-14, 2014, the first Technical Assistance Site Visit was conducted by Franz Braun and Sarah Ray, NCJFCJ Project Leaders.

Juvenile Court is honored to have an outstanding partnership with Shelby County Schools on several very successful initiatives including:

- Juvenile Court and Shelby County Schools began a program partnership to increase accountability for students on probation. The School-Based Probation Liaison (SBPL) Initiative authorizes trained faculty representatives at participating schools to maintain regular contact with students and their Juvenile Court probation counselors. Liaisons monitor the students' daily activity, attendance and academic performance. They also serve as mentors and advocates for their students. The SBPL Initiative formally launched on January 7, 2014 and the first year has been very promising.

- Hope Academy is a dynamic collaboration with Shelby County Schools to provide academic instruction and programming for detained youth. In 2014, Hope Academy celebrated its fourth anniversary at Juvenile Court and has exceeded expectations. The Hope Academy Mentoring Program (HAMP) provides youth leaving Hope Academy with a mentor to successfully transition back to school.
- Youth Court, a partnership with the Tennessee Bar Association, Memphis Bar Association, Memphis Area Legal Services, and Shelby County Schools has prospered since it began in 2011. Youth Court is a model program of OJJDP and integrates elements of restorative justice to hold youth accountable for offenses while preventing future delinquency. Youth courts are an alternative sentencing mechanism for first time, non-violent offenders appearing before the Court and sentenced by a jury of peers. New schools continue to join the Youth Court Initiative. Local attorneys advise and mentor participants in Youth Court, which has become a model in Tennessee. Youth Court has the lowest recidivism rate of any program at Juvenile Court.
