A Message From The Judge

It is a privilege to serve as the elected judge of a Juvenile Court known throughout the nation for its innovative efforts, and it is especially rewarding to work each day with individuals fully committed to the best interests of the children and families they serve. This annual report of the activities of the Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County for calendar year 2010 is my fifth as presiding judge. It provides a brief overview of the tireless work of hundreds of dedicated employees on behalf of children and families in Shelby County. This report is available in electronic format, accessible via the Court's website: www.juvenilecourt.shelbycountyttn.gov.

For more than a century, Juvenile Court has engaged in a vigorous quest for excellence by constantly searching for ways to improve services while building upon research and evidence-based practices. Many juvenile justice initiatives undertaken at this Court have been adopted as models for other programs in Tennessee and across the nation. The process of developing new initiatives continues. There were several significant events in 2010.

In February, 2010, the Court partnered with Memphis City Schools to establish a structured education program for detained youth, known as "Hope Academy." The program provides six hours of classroom instruction in English, math, science, social studies and guidance/life skills. It includes a computer lab and the necessary software to connect detained youth to their regular classroom curriculum. A recreational director, funded by a special grant, plans and implements a program to provide an hour of physical education and training each day. This new program is a very welcome addition to the Court and has proven to be of great benefit to the youth it serves.

The Court maintained special grant agreements with the Department of Human Services (DHS) that provide funding for four child support magistrates, six principal court clerks and two management/supervisory personnel. The grants also support the Court's Advocate for Noncustodial Parents and provide for design and development of new computer software programs. The technological assistance reinforced the Court's initiative to provide for electronic filing of orders and petitions on child support cases. Court staff has made steady progress toward implementation of an electronic filing system.

The Advocate for Noncustodial Parents, established in 2006, continued to function effectively in 2010. Its two attorney staff daily assists pro se or self-represented litigants by explaining Court procedures and by providing them with general guidance through the different offices involved with their cases. The Advocate for Noncustodial Parents has served more than 15,000 people and is being studied as a model for establishing such programs in other Tennessee counties.

The Division of Clinical Services, formally established in 2008, continued to provide assessment screening for juveniles detained for serious offenses and evaluation referrals for youth affected by mental health issues and substance abuse. The Division's clinicians have gone the extra mile in working with local and state agencies to locate suitable treatment resources and facilities for juveniles with developmental disabilities and serious emotional and psychological conditions.

On September 30, 2010, the Court formally observed its 100th anniversary with a special ceremony and reception. Chief Justice Cornelia Clark of the Tennessee Supreme Court was principal speaker on a program that included remarks by Memphis Mayor A C Wharton, Jr., Shelby County Mayor Mark H. Luttrell, Jr., State Senate Majority Leader Mark Norris, State Senate Minority Leader Jim Kyle, House Committee on Children and Family Affairs Chairman John DeBerry, Jr., and District Attorney General William Gibbons. Each of those featured on the program had worked cooperatively with the Court on various initiatives. Special guests included Mrs. Mary Sue Turner, Honorary Event Chairman and widow of former Judge Kenneth A. Turner, and family members of former Judge Elizabeth McCain.

A 35-minute documentary by Memphis filmmaker Willie Bearden, “100 Years of Juvenile Court,” produced in partnership with Victorian Village Inc. and the Tennessee Commission on Children & Youth, was premiered at the reception. Copies of the documentary have been distributed to schools and libraries, and the film is also accessible via the website of the Court (www.juvenilecourt.shelbycountyttn.gov) and the Shelby County Register, www.register.shelby.tn.us. The documentary film is an invaluable part of orientation and training programs for Court staff and volunteers.

The 100th anniversary celebration also featured an all day Continuing Legal Education program conducted by the Administrative Office of the Courts on Friday, October 1 and the inaugural “Right Road Run 5K” race on Saturday, October 2.

Also in 2010, the Court continued its pursuit of accreditation for its short-term pre-adjudicatory detention center from the American Corrections Association, stepped up its efforts to engage with the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges in the Model Court for Delinquency program, and made significant progress toward its goal of being designated as a Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative (JDAI) site by the Annie E. Casey Foundation.

Since the children and families who come to Juvenile Court are either troubled or in trouble, the Court must always be open and accessible. Everyone who seeks help will be treated fairly and with dignity and respect.

The goal of the Clerk's Office in 2010 was to continue to function efficiently and effectively, to respond to the needs of the families of our community, and to generate revenue through collection of court ordered fines and fees, grant contracts and state reimbursement to offset the cost of court operation.

In 2009, the Child Support Services Division at Juvenile Court was not awarded the state contract for the first time since 1976. The state contract for child support services for Shelby County went to Maximus, a private agency, beginning in July 2009. Unlike in previous years, the IV-D Child Support Agency is no longer located in the Juvenile Court building but at an off-site location. This transition in child support services has impacted the Clerk's Office operation in all areas from processing petitions filed for establishment, enforcement, genetic testing and all other related child support issues as well as "Clerk Services" reimbursement from the State. The Clerk's Office staff continues to work closely with Maximus to help meet and process the workload efficiently through this transition period.

In 2010, the Clerk's Office secured a grant contract with the State of Tennessee for a fifth consecutive year in the amount of $914,591.00 for "service of process" in all Title IV-D child support cases. This grant shifts 66% of the total cost of funding fifteen full time positions to the State leaving the Clerk's Office budget responsible for the remaining 34%.

The Juvenile Court Clerk's Office and staff will continue to serve the public to the best of our ability with proven effective leadership, accountability and integrity.

JOY TOULIATOS
Clerk of Court

COLLECTIONS DEPARTMENT
KATHY ADAMS, Manager

The Collections Department within the Court Clerk's Office is responsible for the collection and processing of all monies assessed and paid through the Juvenile Court system. This includes child support payments by mail or in person, employer payrolls, all cash window activity generated from courtroom dockets, walk-ins, as well as fees and fines assessed non-judicially such as conferences, court costs, and traffic ticket violations. This area of the Clerk's Office also handles the writing of all appearance bonds, juvenile or adult, cash or surety, and collection and disbursement of court-ordered restitution payments.

Beginning in October 1999, most child support collections were re-directed to the "centralized collections" process through the State of Tennessee in Nashville. However, the Court Clerk's Office still processed $5,300,964.85 in child support transactions in 2010. The Clerk's Office also received in 2010 a total of $477,434.34 in state reimbursements for "Clerk Services" associated with these collections/transactions and filings under the IV-D Child Support Program.

ACCOUNTING DEPARTMENT

BILL POPE, Manager

BERNARD HARTY, Accountant

This department is responsible for accounting and internally auditing the bookkeeping procedures of the Collections Department on a daily and monthly basis. At the end of each month, collected revenue that has been deposited daily through the Shelby County Trustee's Office is remitted to the County Department of Finance to be deposited into the County general fund, and all account balances are reconciled to their respective bank statements. At the end of each fiscal year, reports are prepared for the state-mandated external audit by an independent accounting/auditing firm. In addition to these routine banking responsibilities, the Accounting Department along with the Clerk has the fiduciary responsibility of managing approximately 906 victims' compensation accounts. These funds, issued by the state Treasury Department under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Program, are put into interest-bearing trust accounts for minors, and currently total almost $5 million.

MINUTE DEPARTMENT

KIM NELSON, Manager

MARY FERRARIS, Supervisor

The minutes of the Juvenile Court constitute the official record of the Court. There are twelve Minute Clerks, which are responsible for recording all the Court's proceedings and decisions and for preparing Court orders and entering those orders in the minutes.

Minute Clerks attend fifty-three scheduled dockets weekly, in addition to special dockets, special hearings, and Foster Care Review Board. In 2010, there were approximately 22,200 pages of minutes written representing over 40,220 individual Juvenile Court orders.

COST CLERK'S DEPARTMENT

ADREINE WILLIAMS, Supervisor

As provided by law, court costs are assessed in all cases before the Court, and the Cost Clerk's Department is responsible for maintenance and collection of these fees. In 2010, collections totaled $450,778.57.

CENTRAL RECORDS DEPARTMENT

DON MEADOR, Deputy Administrator

Central Records Department personnel are responsible for building housing and securely maintaining all Juvenile Court records. Currently there are over 1,306,202 records housed in the Clerk's Office. In 2010, there were 8,403 legal records created and 2,200 social records created. This department also serves to provide assistance and information to the general public, court personnel, social service agencies, attorneys and law enforcement agencies by providing accurate and appropriate information required in the processing and handling of cases through the Juvenile Court.

BAILIFF'S DEPARTMENT

CAPTAIN CLYDE DORTCH, Chief Bailiff

Juvenile Court Bailiffs are responsible for security within the sight and sound of the Court while maintaining proper courtroom decorum. They are also responsible for the safe and secure transport of juveniles and adults to various correctional and detention facilities. Bailiffs work with the certification of Special Deputy status issued by the Sheriff of Shelby County and respond to all emergencies that arise in the vicinity of Juvenile Court.

PROCESS/PARENT LOCATION

RALPH MALLORY, Manager

TRUDY WOODARD, Supervisor Parent Location

The process Department is responsible for the service of all legal documents that require appearance in court. In 2010, 12,893 summons, subpoenas, and scire facias were successfully served. Except in rare and extreme cases, all documents are received ready for service by the Process Department within a minimum of five days prior to a scheduled court date.

The Parent Location Department is responsible for preparing jail arrest papers for the court dockets. In addition, direct access to the Sheriff's Department computer system known as the Jail Management Systems (JMS) allows staff to enter and update current status of all juvenile and adult warrants in a timely manner.

Staff in Parent Location funded under the IV-D State Contract is responsible for all tasks specific to the grant. First and foremost, this staff must enter time-sensitive data daily into the Tennessee Child Support Enforcement System relative to the status of service on all IV-D Child Support Cases.

Juvenile Court Legal Department

LARRY SCROGGS, Chief Administrative Officer and Chief Counsel

The office of the Chief Counsel provides legal counsel to Court staff in pursuit of their administrative responsibilities. In addition, the Chief Counsel serves as legal liaison between Juvenile Court and the Office of the Shelby County Attorney. The Chief Counsel also serves as legal liaison between Juvenile Court and the State of Tennessee and legislative liaison between the Court and the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee. His office ensures compliance with and implementation of extensive federal and state regulations and legislation relating to the operation of Juvenile Court.

ADVOCATE FOR
NONCUSTODIAL PARENTS
THOMAS W. COUPÉ, Supervising Attorney
JOE LITTLE, Attorney
MARILYN JONES, Attorney

People representing themselves in court often need help. Judge Curtis S. Person recognized this need, and in 2006, the Office of the Advocate for Noncustodial Parents was established. Attorneys provide assistance to pro-se litigants in understanding their rights and responsibilities under the law, and guidance in the use of the proper legal forms. Help is available with issues such as child support, paternity, custody, and visitation. This innovative office reflects Judge Person's commitment that Juvenile Court be open and accessible to the large number of persons who are self-represented. With 2,985 contacts in 2010, this office provided services to numerous parents and family members.

JUDGE'S ACTION CENTER

THOMAS W. COUPÉ, Supervising Attorney
YOLANDA JOSHUA, Administrative Technician

Judge Curtis S. Person created the Judge's Action Center in 2008 to serve as a liaison between Juvenile Court and the public to help answer questions or address concerns for people who have issues involving Juvenile Court or child welfare matters.

The Action Center provides helpful and timely answers for those who have questions concerning Juvenile Court, assists people with problems that have previously gone unresolved and receives suggestions on how to improve court operations.

OFFICE OF THE GUARDIAN AD LITEM

BELYNDA DWYER, Attorney Coordinator
SARAH KYLE, Administrative Technician

The Office of the Guardian ad litem is charged with assuring competent legal representation for children and parents in required Juvenile Court cases in compliance with Federal and State laws and Juvenile Court policy and procedure. The Office is also charged with serving as a liaison between Guardians ad litem, appointed counsel, private attorneys, the Tennessee Department of Children's Services, departments within Juvenile Court and other stake holders to promote the best practices and policies in children's cases.

The Attorney Coordinator facilitates the appointment of a Guardian ad litem, an appropriately trained and licensed lawyer, to advocate for the best interests of a child in any proceeding in which:

- The child has no parent, guardian or custodian appearing on the child's behalf;
- The child's interest may conflict with those of parent, guardian, or custodian;
- The child is alleged to be abused;
- The allegation of harm falls within the mandatory child abuse reporting laws; or
- The proceeding is a contested termination of parental rights case

The Attorney Coordinator also facilitates the appointment of counsel for qualified indigent parents in dependency and neglect and termination of parental rights cases. In 2010, approximately 2351 Guardians ad litem and 1,544 parents' counsel were appointed in children's cases.

JUVENILE DEFENDER'S OFFICE
MARILYN SELLERS-HOBBS, Chief Juvenile
Defender

The Juvenile Defender's Office is managed by a Coordinator who supervises a staff of forty-five (private attorneys known as the Juvenile Defender panel and a Legal Investigator. All attorneys are licensed and practice in the State of Tennessee with criminal defense experience ranging from nine to forty three years and defend against charges from truancy to capital murder.

The Defender's Office provides legal defense to all indigent juveniles detained on delinquency matters, which include offenses classified as felony and misdemeanor, paternity and truancy cases. In felony classified cases, (aggravated robbery, robbery, aggravated kidnapping, kidnapping, aggravated assault, rape and Murder I and II) if and when 13 to 18 year olds are transferred to the adult Criminal Justice Complex, the Defender's Office works directly with the Shelby County Public Defender's Office and the Post Conviction Office to guard the legal rights of the juvenile. The cases classified as misdemeanor, paternity and truancy are heard in Juvenile Court and rehabilitative services are provided within the juvenile system.

The Defender's Office also works with the families, clergy, support organizations, schools and mental health facilities to protect the juvenile's interest and litigate for placement in the appropriate program for rehabilitation.

Defenders are also appointed to represent indigent adults, (both incarcerated and walk-ins), charged with contempt of court for either non-payment of child support or failure to comply with parental visitation orders.

In 2010, the court rendered dispositions on 2,529 delinquency cases. The Juvenile Defender's Panel represented 2,211 or 87.43% of the cases assigned to the delinquency docket. Private attorneys represented 318 or 12.57 % of the cases. The 10,220 adult defendants cited for failure to comply with orders of child support docketed in contempt proceedings also utilized services of the Defender's panel to represent their interest.

VICTIM ASSISTANCE SERVICES
SARAH M. CLOUD, Coordinator

The Victim Assistance Program assists the Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County in being a victim friendly court. In working to meet this goal, contacts by telephone, letter or in person were made in 2010 with victims, witnesses, family members and law enforcement on over 8,500 delinquency charges that were heard by the court. The primary mission of this office is to reduce the level of secondary injury associated with the aftermath of crime by providing courteous, dignified and compassionate treatment of all victims and witnesses.

The Coordinator of this program serves as an advocate to victims, witnesses and/or family members throughout the juvenile justice process by providing the following services:

- Liaison between Juvenile Court, the District Attorney General's Office and Law Enforcement
- Provide a safe waiting area while waiting for their Court proceeding
- Orientation of court process and explanation of court procedures and outcomes
- Crisis intervention of victims and family members of victims who are in crisis as a result of their victimization
- Assessment and evaluation of victim needs and assistance with referrals for appropriate services
- Assistance with filing claims for criminal injury compensation
- Assistance with restitution if awarded by the Court.

COURT SERVICES DIVISION

JERRY W. MANESS, Director

The Court Services Division includes the Children's Bureau, the Youth Services Bureau and the Detention Services Bureau. It provides pre-adjudicatory and post-adjudicatory services to children brought to the attention of Juvenile Court. The Court Services Division is mandated by Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 37 to meet the following statutory requirements:

- provide for the care, protection, and wholesome development of children coming within its provisions;
- remove from children committing delinquent acts the taint of criminality and the consequences of criminal behavior and substitute a program of treatment, training and rehabilitation;
- avoid whenever possible separating children from their parents only when necessary to protect the child's welfare or in the interest of public safety;
- assure that all parties are assured a fair hearing and their constitutional and other legal rights are recognized and enforced;
- deinstitutionalize children who have not been found to be delinquent;

In 2010, 18,050 children were brought to the attention of Juvenile Court on matters relating to delinquency, unruly behavior, and dependency and neglect. This is a slight increase (.98%) from 2009. An additional 3,838 children were issued traffic citations representing a 12.85% decrease over the previous year. While the number of referrals has dropped significantly over the past five years, the Court continues to see more children diagnosed with serious mental health and physical issues that contribute to the difficulty of finding appropriate treatment and placement resources. The Division of Clinical Services provides valuable insight into the needs of children with mental health problems and assists with referrals to other mental health providers.

The Detention Services Bureau admitted 6,238 children to the Detention Center in 2010. This represents a 17.18 % decrease from the previous year and is the fifth year to show a decrease in the number of admissions to the Detention Center. Implementation of the Detention Assessment Tool (DAT) has assisted the Court in detaining only those children who may be in danger of harming themselves or a danger to the community. Over the past two years the Court has worked with the Memphis City Schools in the School House Adjustment Program Enterprise (SHAPE) to help reduce the number of children taken into custody from 22 targeted city schools. Data indicates that the SHAPE Program has helped reduce the number of children arrested at the targeted schools by 30% the first year and 39.6% the second year. While the Detention Services Bureau works to reduce the number of children detained, public safety and the safety of the children are always paramount. Every effort is made to place children in a safe and secure environment pending the outcome of their case.

The Children's Bureau was responsible for resolving 21,888 children's cases presented to the Court in 2010. The Children's Bureau consists of the Corrective Services Department which handles cases of children charged with delinquent and traffic charges. The Protective Services Department handles children who are alleged to be dependent and neglected as well as custody and visitation matters. The probation counselors in the Children's Bureau work closely with the Court's Division of Clinical Services, the Tennessee Department of Children's Services, the Tennessee Department of Human Services and many local private agencies to ensure that the safest and least restrictive placements are made for all children. Counselors assigned to the Non-Custodial Diversion Section work with unruly children who have not yet been officially referred to the Court. Referrals to local child-serving agencies assist parents with counseling and behavior management programs.

The Youth Services Bureau provides the Court's continuum of graduated sanctions for youth who are adjudicated delinquent and in need of closer supervision while remaining in their homes. During 2010, the Youth Services Bureau provided electronic monitoring for 579 children placed on home confinement (both voice recognition, radio frequency and Global Positioning Satellites, (GPS) along with case management and intensive case management for children needing a higher level of supervision. The Youth Services Bureau continues to use updates in technology to allow children to remain in their own homes while receiving needed services. Case managers visit the children in their homes and schools to ensure that they are in compliance with the orders of the Court. Violators are brought to the attention of the Juvenile Court Magistrates and may be subject to further sanctions for violations of the conditions of placement in the Youth Services Bureau.

CHILDREN'S BUREAU

BARRY L. MITCHELL, Chief Probation Officer

MAMIE JONES, Deputy Chief Probation Officer

The Children's Bureau is responsible for handling a diverse caseload. The Corrective Services Department handles all delinquent matters while the Protective Services Department handles cases alleging dependency and neglect as well as visitation and custody issues. In 2010, the Children's Bureau handled 18,050 cases.

To handle such a diverse caseload, the Children's Bureau maintains a close working relationship with other departments of the Court. Additionally, the Children's Bureau works with law enforcement and child placement agencies outside the Court.

The Community Service Coordinator is responsible for developing resources for juveniles to perform volunteer work as ordered by the Court. This service allows juveniles to take responsibility for their actions and make restitution for their delinquent acts.

The Non-Custodial Diversion Section handles traffic, truancy, and unruly cases. Staff handles walk-in clients that are experiencing difficulty with the behavior of unruly children. Appropriate cases are referred to local agencies for counseling. During 2010, this section handled 540 unruly cases.

CORRECTIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

STEVEN ALLEN, Manager

JENNIFER BRUNSON, Supervisor

MARTHA ROGERS, Supervisor

RUBY JONES, Supervisor

The Corrective Services Department, consisting of the Probation Section and the Non-Custodial Section, handles a wide range of offenses committed by juveniles. Dispositions in these cases vary from forfeitures and community service to probation, placement in the Youth Services Bureau, commitment to the Tennessee Department of Children's Services or transfer to Criminal Court.

The Probation Section is responsible for the majority of pre-hearing investigations and casework in delinquency cases including juvenile summonses issued by law enforcement agencies throughout Shelby County. The Non-Custodial Diversion Section provides assistance with complaints of unruly children, processes truancy complaints, handles thousands of traffic violators each year, and coordinates the Community Service Program and Mediation and Restitution/Reconciliation Services (MARRS).

The Community Service Program is a symbolic restitution program for children who have committed various types of offenses. Delinquent youths are placed with public and private non-profit agencies that provide work assignments and supervision. There were 350 referrals to the program with 7,829 hours worked in 2010.

PROTECTIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

FAYE M. HOWARD, Manager

ROBERT MICHAEL BLANCETT, Supervisor

ERICA COOPER GLENN, Interim Supervisor

The Protective Services Department assists clients in filing and processing petitions alleging dependency and neglect, custody, visitation, child abuse and other complaints regarding the welfare of children. When it is alleged that a child is in eminent danger, a Protective Custody Order may be granted. Preliminary hearings are scheduled within seventy-two (72) hours of that order and all parties of interest are notified of the hearing. Any time an allegation of neglect or abuse is made, a Guardian ad litem is appointed to represent the best interest of the child. A Guardian ad litem is also appointed to all cases involving children in the custody of the Tennessee Department of Children's Services.

This department works closely with the Tennessee Department of Children's Services, Court Appointed Special Advocates, private attorneys, law enforcement, and private child placing agencies.

The Protective Services Department assists in issuing marriage waivers to minors (under 18 years of age). We also help hospitals with emergency medical treatment for children when the legal guardian cannot be located and the situation is life threatening.

In 2010, our department processed 4,576 children for court hearings and assisted 4,916 walk-in clients. At all times we are cognizant that the majority of these children are dependent upon adults and the legal system to protect them from harm. We are committed to the citizens of Memphis and Shelby County and our goal is to serve.

YOUTH SERVICES BUREAU

C. WAIN RUBENSTEIN, Administrator

FRANCES GONZALES, Deputy Administrator

When a youth is taken into custody for a delinquent offense in Shelby County they must answer to those charges in the Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County. There are a variety of ways these cases are handled including having a court hearing. Prior to going to court the Youth Services Bureau (YSB) reviews the case to see if it is appropriate for YSB, or should something else be recommended. A number of factors are taken into consideration when approving a case for YSB placement, one of which is does the youth have a home to reside in? All children placed in YSB reside in the home of their parent or guardian, and are monitored by YSB case managers.

The mission of the Youth Services Bureau is to develop, manage and supervise community-based programs for youth in Shelby County who require supervision by the Court. Using a sensible, not sanctimonious approach, the goals of the Youth Services Bureau are to correct, re-educate, redirect and habilitate unruly and delinquent youth who come before the Court.

YSB uses a strength based individual placement plan and assessment chart, and Community Risk Assessment. This is developed through an interview with the parent/guardian and child, and a review of the youth's Juvenile Court file. After this information is assembled a "staffing" is held involving the bureau administrators, supervisor, the Placement Resource Officer, and case managers. A consensus is reached as to which program will best benefit the youth and family and the youth is placed on Case Management, Drug Offenders Control System (DOCS), or Intensive Case Management (ICM). Those that require it are monitored by electronic means such as voice verification, ankle bracelets, or GPS tracking.

Youth who require closer supervision are assigned to Intensive Case Management. A specific case manager, who makes home visits, school visits, assist the youth from having further contact with the Court, supervises these cases. The case manager may also use some form of electronic monitoring. Each case manager supervises a caseload of approximately 15 to 20 cases, which affords them the ability to interact with each client on a much closer basis.

Youth who do not require an intense level of supervision are placed on Case Management. These youth are monitored using state of the art electronic technology such as voice recognition, ankle bracelets and GPS technology. The various levels of monitoring are used as graduated sanctions for those youth in need of closer supervision. Additionally, these youth are required to be at home, except when they go to school, attend church, have a doctor's appointments, or other special occasions approved by their case manager.

Drug Offenders Control System (DOCS) is designed to monitor youth that have committed drug offenses or are in need of drug education treatment. Youth follow the same rules as Case Management and additionally must attend a community-based alcohol and drug program along with their parents. All children are randomly tested for drugs by urinalysis. After the youth have successfully completed their home confinement, drug education class and have clean drug screens they are discharged from the program.

As previously mentioned the various forms of electronic monitoring are used as a graduated sanction. A youth may be started out on voice verification, but later be moved to a higher level of electronic monitoring, such as an ankle bracelet or GPS, if this level of supervision proves to be ineffective.

Youth placed on voice verification are required to have a template of their voice made by reciting various words and phrases to the monitoring station. Once the youth returns home they will be called on a random bases several times per day, and must repeat various words and phrases as prompted by the monitoring station. If there is no answer, or the voice does not match the template, the monitoring station will report the violation to the case manager, who will take the appropriate action in dealing with the violation. When a youth is placed on an ankle bracelet they cannot leave their home without a signal being sent to the monitoring station, and likewise a signal is also sent upon their return. If the absence is unauthorized by the case manager, once again the monitoring station will notify the case manager via the Internet. GPS monitoring is the highest level of electronic monitoring. These youth may be traced using the Internet, which will show their movement on a map, and each location the youth visits. By using GPS both inclusion and exclusion zones may be established. This allows the case manager to determine if a youth has left a location they are required to be at, such as school, or they are in a location that is off limits to them.

The Youth Services Bureau continues its collaborative efforts with community-based initiatives such as Juvenile Intervention and Faith Based Follow-up (JIFF) program, which provides counseling and mentoring services to youth in selected zip codes. Referrals are also made to the GRASSY Program, which is a gang reduction program, and to the Youth Offender Initiative. Youth assigned to YSB requiring mental health and substance abuse services are referred to the Court's Evaluation and Referral Bureau, who will make a referral to a community-based treatment resource.

OFFICE OF OUTCOME EVALUATION AND PERFORMANCE IMPROVEMENT

DEBRA MONROE-LAX, Research Specialist, MPA

In 2005, the Office of Outcome Evaluation and Performance Improvement (OEPI) was established to augment the existing statistical data collection efforts of Juvenile Court. This office will gather and examine data relevant to the many duties and activities of the Court Services Division in order to assist in the continuous examination of systemic performance and to measure the effectiveness of:

- intervention strategies and initiatives relative to diversion and adjudicated youth
- the level of monitoring and supervision according to dispositions and referral sources
- the impact of interventions based on youth development, accountability, and public safety

Ongoing trend analysis will assist the Court in planning for the timely and appropriate allocation of resources to manage the changing needs of an unpredictable caseload. Informative internal evaluations serve to provide objective and quantifiable data to promote, support, and guide development and sustainability of effective program interventions offered by the Detention Services Bureau, Children's Bureau, and the Youth Services Bureau.

Detention Services Bureau

RICK POWELL, Administrator

GARY CUMMINGS, Deputy Administrator

ROBERT STANLEY, Manager

The Detention Services Bureau continues to implement Juvenile Detention Alternative planning strategies, and policies to ensure only children who pose a risk to the community are housed in its Center.

Mission Statement:

The purpose of the Detention Services Bureau is to ensure public safety and protection of the community. We are responsible for the health, safety, care, and humane treatment of all youth under our jurisdiction, and we are accountable to the people of Memphis and Shelby County.

The goal of the Detention Services Bureau is to provide a safe and secure environment for children prior to release or adjudication. Through the use of assessment tools and judicial review, only children who may be a danger to themselves or others are detained. Detention Services Bureau will enhance its services by:

- Contract signed with American Correctional Association (ACA) accreditation process has begun.
- School House Adjustment Program Enterprise (SHAPE) continues a reduction of students transported to Juvenile Court Detention Center for minor infractions from Memphis City Schools. We have achieved a 56.4% reduction of children transported to Juvenile Court. SHAPE is a grant funded program from TCCY.
- Coordinated with Porter Leath for Law Enforcement to transport runaways and homeless youth directly to their facility whenever appropriate.
- Collaboration with the Juvenile Detention Alternative Committee chaired by Shelby County Criminal Justice Coordinator to increase the use of Juvenile Summons versus transport of children for minor infractions.

The Detention Services Bureau for the Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County is comprised of four distinct bureaus. Central Detention Control, Boys Detention, Girls Detention and Hope Academy.

Department Supervisors

Stanley Branch, Daphne Edwards, Teresa Harris
James Price, Willie Walton, Larry Weichel

HOPE ACADEMY

MICHAEL SMITH, Program Manager

Hope Academy is a partnership with Shelby County Juvenile Court, and Memphis City Schools that provides a quality education to address the academic and social needs of students detained at Juvenile Court. All educational programs are staffed by certificated Memphis City School staff in the following subjects: Science, Social Studies, Math, and English. The outcome of HOPE Academy will focus on academic success; drop out prevention, recovery of out-of-school youth, increased graduation rates, educational, emotional and counseling services and diversion from criminal justice system. HOPE Academy provides instruction five days a week 12 months a year.

CENTRAL DETENTION CONTROL

Central Detention Control (CDC) is responsible for the admission and release of all children transported to the Court by local law enforcement agencies. CDC is also responsible for all court operations after normal working hours. CDC serves as a 24-hour clerk for all matters related to juvenile court cases. The officers in intake processed 6,236 children in 2010 an 8.3% reduction from 2009. Central Detention Control staff scheduled, coordinated and held 1,861 detention hearings in 2010.

BOYS' DETENTION

Lead Officers

ALVIN BAILEY, JONATHAN RITTER

Boys Detention has 114 individual hardware secure rooms. Every child admitted to detention is assigned an individual room. In 2010 2,585 boys were admitted to boys' detention, a 35% reduction when compared to 2008 numbers.

GIRLS DETENTION

Lead Officers

ANGLIS HAYES, BETTY TABOR, SELENA WALLS

Girls Detention has 21 individual hardware secure rooms. In 2010 707 girls were admitted to girls' detention, a 42% reduction when compared to 2008 numbers.

The Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County has waived jurisdiction in all cases in which a child sixteen (16) years of age or over is charged by officers of the Shelby County municipalities of Bartlett, Collierville, Germantown, and Millington with violation of a state traffic law or a municipal traffic ordinance, except when a child is taken into custody in connection with the offense, in which case the child must be brought to the Juvenile Court Detention Center. Juvenile Court expressly retains jurisdiction over all juveniles charged with traffic law violations by other law enforcement agencies within Shelby County.

HOMICIDES COMMITTED BY JUVENILES

DIVISION OF CLINICAL SERVICES

SIDNEY ORNDUFF, Ph. D. Director

DAVIS SCHULER, Deputy Administrator

NANCY ROLL, Supervisor, Evaluation & Referral Section

“The overlap between the juvenile justice and mental health systems raises difficult questions surrounding service delivery to the children and youth straddling the two systems. One strategy for addressing these issues involves integration of and coordination between the mental health and juvenile justice systems.” (Foster, Qaseem, & Connor, 2004)”

The Division of Clinical Services was established in recognition of the fact that many youth who come to the attention of Juvenile Court do so for a number of reasons, including having unidentified and untreated mental health and substance use disorders that affect their decision-making and behavior.

The Division of Clinical Services consists of the Evaluation and Referral (E&R) and Assessment and Service Planning (ASP) Sections. Established in 1989, the E&R Section is responsible for initiating referrals of Court-involved youth to community-based mental health providers, monitoring treatment compliance and progress of referred youth, and providing other services as requested by the Court. Working in close collaboration with other units of the Court, the E&R Probation Counselors share their broad knowledge of the range of services and specialized programs available in the community and throughout the region. The E&R Section also maintains and updates a community resource directory that is utilized throughout the Court.

Established in 2006, the Assessment and Service Planning (ASP) Section is staffed by Clinical Services Specialists who conduct mental health and cognitive screenings, psychological and specialized evaluations, and risk/needs assessments of court-involved youth; prepare memoranda and comprehensive psychological reports to assist with post-adjudicatory disposition of Court-involved youth; initiate referrals to the Tennessee Department of Children’s Services (DCS) for cases of suspected child maltreatment; and provide other clinical services as requested by the Court. The initiation of mental health and substance use screening of all Juvenile Court detainees has identified many youth with a range of mental health and other specialized needs, many of which have been previously unidentified and untreated. This important function not only serves as a catalyst for referrals to appropriate community-based child and family services providers, but also assists Detention staff with the identification and effective management of detained youth with emotional and behavioral problems.

The Division of Clinical Services maintains a formal partnership with the University of Tennessee Health Science Center through the University of Tennessee Professional Psychology Internship Consortium (UTPPIC). The training opportunities provided to future psychologists are consistently rated among the best of the clinical rotations available to pre-doctoral interns.

In 2010, the Division of Clinical Services conducted over 700 psychological screenings and comprehensive evaluations, and referred approximately 800 youth and families for mental health and specialized services. Since each child is unique, and because multiple individuals, environmental circumstances, and life experiences affect development, the Division of Clinical Services takes a holistic, strength-based approach when working with Court-involved youth and families. Evaluations include an array of standardized assessment instruments and identify the relative strengths and weaknesses of each child. Our ultimate goal is to promote healthy development, reduce recidivism, and help today’s children develop into future productive members of society.

VOLUNTEER SERVICES BUREAU

PAMELA L. TAYLOR, Administrator

The Juvenile Court budget decreased from $18,081,234 to $17,393,091 from FY2010 to FY2011. Revenue to support expenditures comes from the following sources:

Department of Human Services, Child Support Services	$ 1,752,436
Justice Assistance Grant (JAG)	$ 205,492
Juvenile Accountability Block Grant (JABG)	$ 181,223
Department of Children's Services, Child & Family Intervention	$ 67,688
Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC), Mediation Services	$12,600
Tennessee Commission on Children and Youth (TCCY), CASA	$ 9,000
US Department of Agriculture, Breakfast, Lunch and Snack Program	$ 130,000

Volunteer Services Bureau oversees and provides administrative support for Juvenile Court volunteer programs.

In 2010, approximately 600 individuals and organizations throughout Memphis and Shelby County donated over 40,000 hours of volunteer services and other contributions to assist children and families served by Juvenile Court.

Volunteer opportunities at Juvenile Court include:

- Auxiliary Probation Service (APS)
- Special Services Auxiliary (includes GOAL Program, Ambassador Program and Chaplaincy Program)
- Foster Care Review Board (FCRB)
- Commission on Missing and Exploited Children (COMEC)
- Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA)

The volunteer programs at Juvenile Court offer priceless service to the community. The dedication of volunteers helping children and families in our community is immeasurable.

As a part of community outreach, Volunteer Services Bureau visited several organizations and provided onsite virtual tours to approximately 264 participants during 2010. Virtual tours are provided to motivate youth to refrain from inappropriate behavior and to educate the public on Court programs and operation.

AUXILIARY PROBATION SERVICE

NATAKI OYELEYE, Coordinator

The Auxiliary Probation Service (APS) was created in 1964 by the late Juvenile Court Judge Kenneth A. Turner. It was the first volunteer probation program of its kind in the nation. The Auxiliary Probation Service (APS) provides Court ordered services for the supervision, guidance, protection and welfare of youth in Memphis and Shelby County.

Under the leadership of Judge Curtis S. Person, the Auxiliary Probation Service (APS) continues to thrive. It remains the oldest and largest volunteer probation service of its kind. In 2010, approximately 165 active Auxiliary Probation Officers contributed over 27,622 hours supervising approximately 639 youth placed on supervised probation and the BYPASS Program. The BYPASS Program (Bringing Youth Positive Assistance through Special Services) is an alternative to probation for very young children with minor offenses. The BYPASS Program is very successful in keeping many youth from future delinquent behavior.

During 2010, members of the Auxiliary Probation Service (APS) were honored for their outstanding contributions and dedicated service. Officer Murray Fryar was presented the prestigious and nationally recognized Jefferson Award. Deputy Chief Audrey Gonzalez received the Judge's Outstanding Service Award, Division Chief Tommy Evans received the Jesse H. Bishop Award, Division Chief Edna Shaw received the Clara Hill Award, and Officer Latricia Edwards received the Jeune Wood Volunteer of the Year Award. Members celebrating anniversaries include:

- 40+ Years: District Chief Nathaniel Moody(41), Deputy Chief Tommy Smith(40)
- 30+ Years: Officer Melvin Shipp(35), Officer James Fisher(33), Officer Robert Carter(31), Officer Lillian Brisco(30)
- 20+ Years: Officer Aubrey Miller (24), Officer William Gilmore (21), Officer Anne Boswell(21), Officer Leroy Davis(21), Division Chief Tommy Evans(21), District Chief Keith Woodard(20).

JOY VERNON, Coordinator

In 2010, Judge Curtis S. Person spearheaded a movement for local law enforcement to issue a juvenile summons instead of arresting and detaining first and second time juvenile offenders who commit a misdemeanor offense. The seven misdemeanor offenses include: criminal trespass, simple assault, simple possession of marijuana, theft of property ($500 or less), vandalism of property ($500 or less), gambling, and disorderly conduct.

The Auxiliary Probation Service (APS)-Summons Division was created by Judge Curtis S. Person in September 2010 to address the increased volume of summons received by Juvenile Court due to the success of the innovative summons policy.

Auxiliary Probation Officers conduct the juvenile summons conferences at Juvenile Court. During the conference, the arrest ticket is reviewed and the youth is counseled to determine guilt and the reason for the offense. The Auxiliary Probation Officer documents any special observations to determine if the juvenile needs to be referred for specialized counseling (anger management, substance abuse, depression). If the juvenile admits guilt, signs a court waiver and pays court costs the juvenile will not have a Juvenile Court record.

In 2010, Volunteer Services Bureau received 296 summons. Approximately 31 active Auxiliary Probation Officers contributed over 434 hours conducting 202 conferences.

SPECIAL SERVICES AUXILIARY

THOMAS H. EVANS, Coordinator

The Ambassador Program is based in the Court's lobby. Ambassadors offer a customer friendly atmosphere by greeting and guiding visitors to various locations within the building. Ambassadors also help the Court to monitor guests in the building by assisting visitors with the check-in process at lobby kiosks. During 2010, six (6) individuals contributed a total of 2,046 hours with the Ambassador Program.

The GOAL Program (Greater Opportunity for Additional Learning) provides daily motivational messages and life skills training to juveniles while they are housed in Detention Services Bureau. GOAL facilitators serve as special guest speakers for juveniles prior to the start of their school day at Hope Academy. Hope Academy is the Memphis City School operated within Detention Services Bureau.

Volunteer facilitators from various walks of life encourage dialogue from detainees by sharing life experiences, stressing the importance of education and encouraging them to achieve their goals. In 2010, forty-seven (47) individuals contributed a total of 245 hours in the GOAL program serving 5,403 boys and 504 girls.

FOSTER CARE REVIEW BOARD

MELISSA UNGBERG, Coordinator

LIBBY LUCCHESI, Volunteer Coordinator

The Foster Care Review Board is comprised of volunteers that review cases of children in the custody of the Tennessee Department of Children's Services. The Board also reviews cases of children who are in custody through private placements. The Board members review the quarterly reports submitted by Family Service Workers to advise and make recommendations regarding the efforts and progress made by the families.

The findings and recommendations pertain to:

- necessity of continuing foster care and the appropriateness of the placement
- level of participation of all involved parties in fulfilling their responsibilities as stated in the permanency plan
- extent of progress in the elimination of problems that necessitated foster care placement
- necessity of filing a termination of parental rights action if progress has not been made towards reunification within a reasonable amount of time
- projected date when the child can be removed from foster care, either by adoption or permanent placement

In 2010, the Foster Care Review Board reviewed 1,043 docketed cases resulting in approximately 125 volunteer hours. This task is critical to the welfare of children. The Foster Care Review Board members are to be commended for their dedication to the children of our community.

COMMISSION ON MISSING AND EXPLOITED CHILDREN

SERGEANT LEN EDWARDS, Executive Director

Memphis Police Department

COMEC is a nonprofit charity that was born within the Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County after a series of highly publicized child disappearances. Recognizing the need to better address the issues of missing children, COMEC was formed as a collaborative effort among the Juvenile Court of Memphis and Shelby County, the Memphis Police Department and the Shelby County Sheriff's Department. COMEC was designed to provide a unified and comprehensive approach toward addressing the issues that affect the successful recovery of missing and exploited children, its causes and prevention.

Since 1984, COMEC has been promoting the safety and protection of all children by providing free prevention and early intervention programs. These user-friendly programs include:

- Child Safety and Identification
- Safety in Cyberspace
- Violence Prevention
- Teen Substance Abuse Testing Program
- Child Abduction Response

These free programs are designed to educate and empower parents to better address the issues that affect their children. In addition, COMEC regularly provides technical assistance to our area's other law enforcement agencies, searching parents and personnel of the Court on issues relating to parental abduction.

During 2010, COMEC has provided:

- 82 counseling sessions with parents and children
- 67 community outreach programs
- 2,723 free at-home drug test kits were distributed
- 103 toxicology lab drug tests performed
- 3,077 Child Safety Identification pieces produced
- 7 Juvenile Court tours
- 5,177 children served through various COMEC Services and community events
- 1 Amber Alert (West Tennessee only)

COMEC has become one of this area's outstanding resources to parents and guardians seeking help with their children and the issues that affect them.

COURT APPOINTED SPECIAL ADVOCATES

KEISHA M. WALKER, Executive Director

Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Memphis and Shelby County began in 1986 under the late Kenneth A. Turner, former judge of the Shelby County Juvenile Court as a result of a movement initiated by juvenile court judges to look for alternative ways to make sure the best interests of children would be consistently presented to the court. Our mission is to empower volunteers to be voices in court for abused and neglected children needing safe, permanent homes. In 2010, 156 active volunteers served 492 children and their families and contributed over 9,000 hours of service.

CASA volunteers receive in depth training to support their role as advocates and are appointed by a judge to advocate for the best interest of an abused or neglected child in court. Once assigned to a child's case, volunteers are professionally supervised through the investigative process of gathering information from the children for whom they have been appointed and their families, educators, social service professionals, health care providers, and any other persons having information regarding the child's case. Upon completion of the investigation, the findings are presented to the court outlining the volunteer's concerns, evaluations, and recommendations for the child's future.

CASA's role in court is powerful and significantly improves how justice is administered in dependency and neglect cases. Juvenile Court judges use the report to respect the child's sense of time, avoid unnecessary continuances and make informed, timely decisions regarding the best interest of the children who are before the court. For children, CASA volunteers are a lifeline in complex legal proceedings offering trust, advocacy, and a means to express their own opinions and hopes. One CASA child noted that "To give a child a CASA is to give them a voice, and to give them a voice is to give them hope, and to give them hope is to give them the world."

INTERAGENCY SERVICES

SHERRY K. SCHEDLER, Manager

The Office of Interagency Services develops and maintains youth services initiatives and projects shared by Juvenile Court and outside agencies. Interagency Services endeavors to expand services to children and families through partnership development and grants.

In 2010, the Court participated in several grant initiatives. Examples include:

- The Child and Family Intervention Grant, awarded by the Tennessee Department of Children's Services, provided professional services for work with at-risk children and youth.
- The Governor's Initiative Grant, funded by the State of Tennessee, Office of Criminal Justice Programs, expanded Global Positioning System (GPS) technology and provided Intensive Case Managers for youth charged with weapons-related offenses. The project formally ended in September 2010 when all funds were expended.
- The Justice Assistance Grant (JAG), funded by the U.S. Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), allows states and local governments to prevent and control crime and improve the criminal justice system. JAG provided funds for Youth Court.
- The Justice Assistance Grant (JAG), American Recovery and Investment Act (ARRA) of 2009, continued funding for the Recreational Director for detainees, educational and security supplies, and equipment and supplies for new child support services.
- The Juvenile Accountability Block Grant (JABG), a federal grant of the U.S. Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP), is administered by the Tennessee Commission on Children and Youth (TCCY). JABG's goal is to reduce delinquency by improving the juvenile justice system and increasing accountability of offenders. New JABG funds assist with Youth Court, equipment, supplies, and computer technology enhancements etc.
- The Supreme Court of Tennessee, Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC), Access and Visitation Grant, provided continued funding for a part-time law student in the Office of the Advocate for Non-Custodial Parents to assist self-represented litigants.

We are extremely honored to announce the opening of Hope Academy in February 2010. Hope Academy is a partnership between Juvenile Court and Memphis City Schools to provide full-time, year-round, academic instruction and programming for detained youth. We are most appreciative of Memphis City Schools Superintendent, Dr. Kriner Cash, and staff for their support and unwavering commitment to provide detained youth with rich, engaging, and quality academic instruction. Hope Academy has exceeded expectations and we look forward to our continued collaboration.

Juvenile Court is pleased to be partnering with the Tennessee Bar Association, Memphis Bar Association, Memphis Area Legal Services, and Memphis City Schools to establish Youth Court. Volunteer attorneys will serve as student mentors and four area high schools will serve as the first Youth Court panelists. Youth Court is a model program of the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), Office of Justice Programs (OJP), Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP), and incorporates elements of restorative justice to hold youth accountable for offenses and prevent future delinquency. Youth courts, also known as teen or peer courts are an alternative sentencing mechanism for first-time, non-violent juvenile offenders who appear before and are sentenced by a jury of their peers. Teen Courts are spreading rapidly across the country and in Tennessee. We look forward to the formal launch of the Memphis and Shelby County Youth Court in early 2011.

Memphis was selected as one of six participating cities by the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) and tasked to develop a comprehensive, community-based plan to prevent gang and youth violence. This project became the Memphis Youth Violence Prevention Initiative. In 2011, Memphis and other participating cities will present their plans at a Youth Violence Summit in Washington D.C. Local project coordination is provided by the Memphis Shelby Crime Commission, spearheading Operation: Safe Community. The Initiative is led by Mayor A C Wharton and Mayor Mark Luttrell and participating agency representation is provided by U.S. Attorney's Office, District Attorney's Office, Public Health, Public Safety, Children's Services, both City and County governments and school systems, as well as representatives from the non-profit, business, and faith-based communities.

Juvenile Court is an active member of the Memphis and Shelby County Juvenile Justice Board focusing on schoolsafety. Membership is comprised of comprehensive community partners with the goal of improving school safety and recommending policy addressing emerging and changing needs of at-risk youth. The Board also works closely with the Memphis Shelby Crime Commission, spearheading Operation: Safe Community on the Memphis Youth Violence Prevention Initiative.

Our community partners are valued and appreciated as we jointly endeavor to advance services to children and families. We look forward to continuing our work in 2011.
